Location

This house is particularly well set and enjoys a quiet semi-rural location and yet is only 11 miles or so from Norwich - the City of Culture - which has an excellent range of facilities including a direct line to London Liverpool Street by train and an international airport. There is local schooling at Forncett which has an 'outstanding' Ofsted report. Within Tacolneston, the adjoining village, there is a primary school, two public houses and a takeaway. The ever-popular town of Wymondham is around 5 miles away with its excellent range of schools, supermarkets and local shops. In addition, there is a rail station on the Norwich to Cambridge line and easy access onto the A11 which is fully dualled to Newmarket and further beyond to Cambridge.

The Property

Stepping through the entrance, the welcoming boot room sets the tone for this exceptional home, leading seamlessly into the impressive heart of the property — a beautifully appointed contemporary kitchen designed with both family life and entertaining in mind. At its centre is a substantial island, while expansive doors open directly onto the garden, creating a wonderful connection between the kitchen and the outside space. A striking architectural light box draws additional natural light into the room, enhancing the sense of space and creating a bright, elegant setting. The current owners have thoughtfully extended the property to create a superbly proportioned lounge, centred around a characterful wood-burning stove and offering a wonderfully comfortable space in which to relax and unwind. A separate formal dining room provides a more intimate setting for entertaining, with exposed beams and an attractive exposed brick chimney breast adding considerable character and offering the potential for a further wood-burning stove. The study/home office is equally impressive, combining practicality with charm. Exposed beams and a wood-burning stove create a warm and characterful environment, making it an inspiring space for working from home. The ground floor accommodation continues with a beautifully presented bathroom featuring a classic roll-top bath, leading through to a separate shower room with an impressive double shower. A generous double bedroom with its own en-suite shower room completes the ground floor, providing an ideal private suite for guests, family members or those seeking single-level living. The principal bedroom occupies its own private first-floor retreat, accessed via a dedicated staircase. With its wonderful vaulted ceiling and luxurious en-suite, it provides a particularly special and peaceful space away from the main living accommodation. A second staircase leads to two further bedrooms, positioned one beyond the other and offering versatile accommodation for family, guests or additional hobbies and home-working requirements. Throughout, the property beautifully balances the character and warmth of its original features with carefully considered modern improvements. The result is a highly individual home offering generous proportions, superb flexibility and a seamless blend of period charm and contemporary family living.

Outside

Approached through private gates, this exceptional family residence immediately creates a sense of privacy and exclusivity. The impressive rear garden is a true highlight, offering an expansive private setting with uninterrupted panoramic views across the surrounding countryside. To the front, a beautifully secluded garden has been thoughtfully landscaped for both relaxation and entertaining. A charming gazebo provides a sheltered setting over the decked seating area, overlooking the ornamental fish pond, while an extensive paved terrace offers the perfect space for elegant alfresco dining and summer entertaining. From here, steps rise to an impressive roof terrace, creating an exceptional outdoor retreat and providing a spectacular elevated vantage point from which to enjoy the far-reaching countryside views. The combination of privacy, generous outdoor space and breathtaking rural surroundings gives this wonderful home a truly special sense of tranquility and exclusivity.
