Location

Wymondham itself is an historic market town just 10 miles south of Norwich city centre. The town benefits from a variety of good schooling, both primary and secondary, with Wymondham College in particular boasting an 'outstanding' Ofsted rating. There are good supermarkets, including Waitrose and numerous small businesses in the town. Buses link the surrounding towns and villages and the town's railway station also provides a direct line into Norwich, Ely and Cambridge, with London commutable in around 2 hours.

The Property

Upon entering, the welcoming entrance hall provides access to the principal rooms and creates a practical first impression of the property. The two bedrooms are both well proportioned, offering comfortable accommodation and flexibility for a variety of needs, whether used as bedrooms, a guest room or home office. The kitchen provides a practical range of storage and preparation space, while the spacious lounge offers a comfortable area for relaxing and entertaining. To the rear of the property is a bright and useful conservatory, which enjoys pleasant views over the garden and provides an additional reception space that could be used throughout the year.

Outside

To the front of the property, a private driveway provides access to the carport and garage, which features an electrically operated up-and-over door to the front and a personal door providing access to the rear. The rear garden comprises a paved patio area, lawn and greenhouse, offering a good combination of entertaining and garden space. The garden enjoys a pleasant open aspect to the rear, backing directly onto the playing fields of the neighboring primary school.
