The Property

Hingham has one of the finest groups of Georgian houses in Norfolk and set proudly amongst them is Mansion House, an outstanding late 17th century residence notable for its architectural features of chequered brick with shaped gable end. This Grade II* Listed property, which is mentioned in Pevsner's Guide, has beautifully proportioned living space and includes a one bedroom annexe. Overall accommodation extends to approximately 2,500 sq.ft. Elegant interiors are highlighted by high ceilings and tall sash windows. As with many of the rooms, the sitting room is dual aspect looking out upon a walled garden and creating a warm focal point is an inglenook fireplace with wood burner. An impressive dining room with inglenook, accesses the conservatory and kitchen. An AGA compliments a range of kitchen cabinets with hardwood preparation surfaces. Arranged off a small lobby is a utility area with cloakroom. The first floor main bedroom suite has an adjoining study/dressing room and a bathroom. On the upper floor there are 2 generous sized bedrooms enjoying roof top views, one served by an en-suite bathroom. These 2 bedrooms do have sloping ceilings; however the head height is generous. A separate annexe provides additional accommodation with its en-suite bedroom, living room and kitchenette, offering numerous options such as: guest quarters, music or arts studio, home office; or a potential B&B (stca).

The Outside

Much desired off road parking is set behind a gated entrance leading to a lock up garage (21'2" x 9'3") which is incorporated into the annexe building together with a storage shed. A pretty secluded garden has an area of lawn and a patio area ideal for al-fresco dining.
