Location

South View is situated on the centre of the small village of Shelfanger which has excellent local primary schools in the nearby villages of Bressingham and Winfarthing. Shelfanger lies 3 miles north of Diss, a busy market town offering a wide range of facilities including schooling to sixth form level, local and national shops, sporting and social clubs including an 18 hole golf course. The mainline railway in Diss gives access to both Norwich and London Liverpool Street with a journey to London taking around 90 minutes and the cathedral city of Norwich is just over 20 miles to the north where there is an international airport. The coastal towns of Aldeburgh and Southwold are around 30 miles away and Cambridge is reached in around 75 minutes.

Property

Set in the heart of Shelfanger, this distinctive Grade II Listed property five-bedroom cottage is steeped in history and full of character. Thought to date back to the early 18th century, it retains much of its original charm, with a roughcast timber-frame beneath a steep pantile roof, complete with gabled ends. A central brick chimney stack anchors the home, while two gabled dormer windows add to its period appeal. Inside, the property offers a wealth of original features, beginning with two generously sized reception rooms, each offer the focal point of an impressive inglenook fireplace housing a wood-burning stove. The kitchen is a true heart-of-the-home space, with room for a dining table and a traditional Rayburn nestled into a handsome brick surround. A separate dining area provides a more formal setting, while a study offers a quiet retreat for work. A downstairs bathroom and a further shower room add practicality, a spiral staircase leads to a secluded bedroom, ideal for guests or a private hideaway. Upstairs, via a separate staircase to the rear of the house, four further proportioned bedrooms complete the accommodation.

Outside

The cottage sits within a generously sized plot, where established gardens unfold with sweeping lawns, mature trees, and carefully tended borders bursting with seasonal colour. At the northwest end of the property, a modern lean-to garage provides useful storage, a pleasant summerhouse offers a sunny spot to sit in the summer months. To the rear of the garden is separate area set out a vegetable patch with raised beds and potting sheds. A spacious driveway to the front allows for multiple vehicles and provides an inviting approach to this charming home.
