Summary

Occupying a prime position within the exclusive Forest Gardens development, this exceptional two-bedroom detached bungalow by renowned developer Aspects Homes offers stylish contemporary living with the convenience of thoughtfully designed single-storey accommodation.

Finished to an impressive specification throughout, this brand-new home combines elegant interiors, energy-efficient construction and carefully considered design, ideal for a range of purchasers seeking modern comfort in a highly regarded location.

The accommodation is entered via a welcoming entrance hall which immediately sets the tone for the quality and space on offer. Positioned to the left is a beautifully proportioned sitting room, providing a bright and relaxing living environment ideal for both everyday living and entertaining.

To the right-hand side of the hallway are a generous double bedroom and a contemporary family bathroom fitted with stylish modern sanitaryware and quality finishes. Continuing through the property, the home opens into an impressive dining kitchen situated to the rear, creating a superb sociable space with ample room for dining and entertaining whilst enjoying views over the garden.

The property further benefits from an additional well-proportioned bedroom together with an elegant principal bedroom featuring a striking bay window and en-suite facilities, creating a luxurious and private retreat.

Externally, the bungalow enjoys private gardens and off-road parking, whilst benefiting from all the advantages associated with a newly constructed home including modern insulation, energy-efficient heating systems and low-maintenance living.

The Charnwood design by Aspects Homes is particularly admired for its spacious layout, contemporary styling and practical accommodation, with an emphasis on natural light, quality craftsmanship and comfortable modern living throughout.

Forest Gardens is ideally positioned for access to local amenities, nearby countryside walks and excellent transport connections, including the M1 motorway network and surrounding centres such as Leicester, Loughborough and Derby.
