Kestrel Close, Hove, BN3 6NS

£850,000

A truly stunning four-bedroom end-of-terrace house, ideally positioned in this highly sought-after central location. The property has been finished to an excellent standard throughout with a beautiful open plan kitchen/dining room, and further benefits from a superbly landscaped rear garden. Early and internal viewing is essential.

Further Information

The accommodation comprises a spacious entrance hall, an attractive bay-fronted living room, and a truly amazing open-plan kitchen/dining room to the rear. Filled with natural light from a skylight and large sliding doors opening onto the garden, this space is a true focal point of the home and has been finished to an exceptional standard.

The former garage has been converted to create a self-contained annexe, complete with en suite shower room and its own separate access. The space is currently utilised as a successful Airbnb, offering excellent flexibility for guest accommodation, independent living or a home study.

To the first floor, there are three generous double bedrooms and a family bathroom, with the principal bedroom further benefiting from a modern en suite bathroom featuring both bath and separate walk-in shower.

The rear garden has been beautifully landscaped to include decking, lawn and well-stocked borders, along with secure side access.

Family homes of this standard are rarely found, and we cannot stress that early and internal viewing is highly recommended.

Kestrel Close is a quiet residential cul-de-sac, well positioned for easy access into both Brighton and Hove. The area is popular with families and professionals alike, with a good range of local shops, well-regarded schools and green spaces nearby. Preston Park, Hove Park, and the seafront are both within easy reach, while regular bus routes and nearby road links provide straightforward connections into the city centre and beyond.
