Scarborough

Guide Price £550,000

Freehold

Exceptional Victorian coastal investment with stunning sea views and full planning permission for six holiday lets plus three B&B rooms, moments from Scarborough’s South Bay.

Guide Price £550,000 - £560,000

Occupying a position with unbeatable sea views across Scarborough’s South Bay, Bay House is a striking Victorian residence offering rare versatility, timeless architecture, and a substantial income potential. Whether you’re seeking an established coastal investment, a boutique hospitality venture, or a multigenerational home, this landmark property delivers on every front.

- The layout has been thoughtfully designed to accommodate a blend of private living, guest use, and revenue generation. It currently comprises of:
- Lower Ground Floor: One-bedroom apartment with garden access
 - Ground Floor: Large Sea view reception room, an additional bedroom with an en-suite, guest WC, and a private-use bar lounge with access to the lower ground floor
 - First Floor: One rear bedroom and a separate one-bedroom apartment featuring an open-plan kitchen/living space and stunning sea views
 - Top Two Floors: Full planning permission in place for a further five holiday lets and 3 bed & breakfast rooms, offering significant short-term rental income potential

This is a rare opportunity to secure a seafront property that not only showcases character features but also provides a clear pathway for continued or expanded income. Whether you’re looking for a rewarding lifestyle business, to expand a holiday let portfolio, or create a luxurious residence for multigenerational family living, Bay House presents an outstanding canvas in one of Scarborough’s most prestigious locations.

Outside, residents and guests can enjoy all the charms of Esplanade Road — with South Bay Beach, the Cliff Lift, Scarborough Spa, and the Italian Gardens just a short stroll away. The town’s renowned cultural attractions, including the Rotunda Museum and Stephen Joseph Theatre, as well as its eclectic mix of cafés, restaurants, and seafront walks, are all within easy reach.
