An opportunity to purchase this character cottage nestled within the sought after and picturesque village of Ingham. Recently renovated throughout whilst retaining original features. Following the renovation the property was briefly let as a holiday cottage and separately as a short term AST let but would also make for a lovely primary home, benefitting from no onward chain. Viewing by appointment only.

The property has been recently renovated to include full rewiring and a new central heating system installed, exterior walls repointed and the internal walls have been damp treated and plastered new with a 30 year warranty also the timber beams have been treated. The EPC has not been renewed thus does not take into account the changes with the renovations works. NO ONWARD CHAIN.

The village has a large village green surrounded by trees, overlooked by the village primary school and village shop. Other amenities include the village hall, tennis court, play park which has been renovated in 2022, 13th century village church and war memorial, doctors surgery and two public houses. Ideal location for walkers and pet owners as the village is surrounded by public paths. Commutable distance into the city of Lincoln with regular transport links plus the ever popular William Farr CofE secondary is approximately only 5 miles away.
