Leasehold Information
This property has been separated into two self contained dwellings (including utilities), being individually sold with the title register to be split during the sale.

When both leases have been granted, the freehold will be transferred to each leaseholder. The consideration for the freehold has yet to be agreed but this should be a nominal amount. Each leaseholder will own the freehold on a 50:50 basis. Once the freehold has been transferred, each leaseholder will have their Lease, a 50% joint freeholder and as such a stake in looking after the common areas. Buildings insurance will be the responsibility of the freeholder to cover all the building. Each flat will pay a proportion of the premium payable.

Lease Remaining - 999 Years
Ground Rent - Peppercorn
Service Charge - TBC for ongoing maintenance of communal areas (detail to be confirmed via solicitor)
Review Period - Annual
