Nestled in the charming village of Lower Upnor, Kent, this modern two-bedroom semi-detached house offers a delightful blend of comfort and convenience. Built between 1980 and 1989, the property is ideally located near the picturesque River Medway, making it a perfect retreat for those who appreciate natural beauty and a tranquil lifestyle.

Upon entering, you are welcomed into a lounge that flows into the kitchen at the rear. The kitchen overlooks the garden. The first floor features a double bedroom, a cosy single bedroom, with a modern bathroom complete with a shower over the bath, catering to all your needs.

Externally, the property boasts gardens both at the front and rear, offering space for outdoor relaxation. Additionally, there is one allocated car parking space, ensuring convenience for residents and visitors alike.

The location is particularly advantageous, it is a village with water edge walks close by. Strood Town Centre, the train station, and major motorway links (A2/M2) ARE just a short distance away. This makes commuting into London or heading to the beautiful Kent coast a breeze, making it an ideal choice for professional couples or single individuals seeking a balance of work and leisure.

In summary, this semi-detached house in Lower Upnor presents an excellent opportunity for those looking to enjoy a modern lifestyle in a picturesque setting, with all essential amenities and transport links within easy reach.
