The Area

Hoby is a particularly unspoilt and popular village situated in the Wreake Valley. The village offers a local pub, church, village hall and an active community. Nearby is Ragdale Hall Spa and there is nearby schooling at Melton Mowbray, Ratcliffe College, Loughborough Endowed Schools and Oakham. The Wreake Valley is renowned for its many country walks, unspoilt villages and popular pubs and is particularly well placed for fast commuting to Melton Mowbray, Leicester, Loughborough and Nottingham. The A46 just to the North allows access to Newark and Lincoln, the North West Leicester by-pass at Leicester providing fast access to the M1.

Outside Rear

The rear garden is well maintained with a vast array of shrubs, plants and trees including a magnificent Wellingtonia Redwood tree which is protected. There are also planted borders and shaped lawn offering a great deal of privacy from the rear.
