The bespoke kitchen, individually designed by the current owner, is both elegant and highly functional, featuring premium integrated appliances including a double oven, wine cooler, and instant hot water tap. Clean lines, refined finishes, and a thoughtfully considered layout create a space perfectly suited to both entertaining and everyday living. A separate utility/boot room provides additional practicality, complete with fitted sink and dedicated space for laundry appliances. The living area has been designed with both comfort and entertainment in mind, featuring a projector for cinematic experiences and major sporting events, complemented by a bespoke media wall that provides stylish storage and a contemporary focal point.

The accommodation comprises four generously proportioned double bedrooms, each finished to an exceptional standard.
