PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Situated in a quiet and convenient residential position within Bradley Stoke, this two-bedroom terraced home offers bright, well-proportioned accommodation with excellent scope for modernisation. With a practical layout over two floors, generous natural light and the rare benefit of off-street parking to the front, the property is an appealing choice for first-time buyers, downsizers or those looking to personalise a home to their own specification.

A welcoming entrance hall leads to a ground-floor cloakroom/W.C. and through to the front sitting room, a comfortable space with a wide picture window and focal fireplace. To the rear, the kitchen/dining room spans the full width of the house and opens directly onto the garden. The kitchen offers ample cabinetry and work-surface space, forming a strong starting point for future upgrades or redesign.

Upstairs, the property provides two bedrooms, including a generous double overlooking the rear garden and a well-sized second bedroom to the front. A first-floor bathroom with bath and shower-over completes the accommodation.

Externally, the home enjoys a private rear garden, laid to lawn with a patio and offering clear potential to landscape or enhance. To the front, the property benefits from off-street parking, providing everyday convenience and a notable advantage over many comparable homes.

Location

Pursey Drive sits within a popular and well-connected part of Bradley Stoke, offering easy access to local shops, cafés, green spaces, schools and the Willow Brook Centre. Excellent transport connections include swift routes to the M4/M5 interchange, Aztec West, Metro Bus services and Bristol Parkway Station, making the location ideal for commuters and families alike.
