PROPERTY OVERVIEW

This delightful Park Bungalow offers an inviting blend of modern style and traditional charm with your comfort in mind, providing a range of features which are both practical and beautiful.

With its vaulted ceiling and integrated appliances as well as being fully furnished and tasteful decorated throughout this home will give you a light and spacious homely feel that you have been looking for.

Further adding to the Sonnet's unique appeal, the open plan living has its own distinctive charm, and with this Sonnet design it can suit everyone's needs and presents luxury and comfort at incredible value.

Lea Villa Park is an over 50's fully residential semi/retirement park which lies just off the A40 and has quick and easy access to Ross-on-Wye, Gloucester, the M5 and M50 motorways and the main line railway stations can be found in Hereford and Gloucester. Lea Villa Park is in an exceptional location on the doorstep of the outstanding Forest of Dean and Wye Valley enjoying commanding views of open countryside. The pretty market town of Ross-on-Wye is the nearest main town where you will find a wide variety of shops, restaurants and things to do and the Cathedral city of Gloucester is just a short drive away.

There is a very good general store which is a ten minute walk or two minutes in the car, where you can get all your groceries and every Wednesday and Friday a Post Office van parks up behind the store and you can post letters, take parcels and pay bills, alternatively about two miles away there is a CO-OP store with its own Post Office in the village of Mitcheldean. There is a petrol station around the corner from the shop which is convenient and a bus stop where the bus takes you into Ross on Wye, Hereford or Gloucester and across the road is a 5* AA B&B for family or friends needing somewhere local to stay.

Lea Villa Residential park is a delightful escape from all the hustle and bustle, where you can enjoy the simple, relaxed and quiet pleasures of life soaking in all its beautiful surroundings and wildlife which it has to offer right on the doorstep.
