PROPERTY OVERVIEW

A beautifully presented and characterful 1930's extended family home offering well balanced accommodation of approximately 150.1 sq m (1,615 sq ft) including the garage. The property has been thoughtfully improved by the current owners, blending modern living with retained period charm.

The ground floor centres around a generous open plan kitchen and dining space, fitted with contemporary high gloss units, integrated appliances and a central island, flowing seamlessly through to the dining area with sliding doors opening onto the rear garden. A separate living room provides a comfortable and inviting space, enhanced by soft neutral décor and original features. Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged over two floors, offering flexibility for family life, home working or guest accommodation. The staircase benefits from a skylight, creating a bright and airy feel, while the bathroom is finished in a clean, modern style.

Externally, the southerly facing rear garden has been recently landscaped with lawn and attractive slate patio seating areas, creating an ideal space for entertaining and relaxing. The large garage to the rear enjoys excellent access and has recently benefited from a new roof and door. To the front, a newly created driveway provides convenient off-street parking for two cars.

Further benefits include solar panels, modernised interiors, and a home that offers both character and practicality in equal measure.

Location

Tuffley Road is ideally positioned between Henleaze and Westbury on Trym, offering easy access to independent shops, cafés, schools and green open spaces. Henleaze High Street and Westbury village are both nearby, along with excellent transport links into Bristol City Centre and beyond, making this a highly desirable residential setting for families.
