High Street, Tarring, BN14 7NR

Asking Price £430,000

Set in a lovely position within the heart of historic Tarring Village, this extended four-bedroom mid-terrace home offers beautifully presented accommodation in one of Worthing's most charming and convenient locations. The ground floor includes a welcoming entrance hall, cloakroom, comfortable lounge and an impressive extended kitchen/dining area, creating a bright and sociable space for family life and entertaining. The kitchen is well fitted with integrated appliances, while doors from the dining area open directly onto the rear garden. The first floor provides three generous bedrooms, each with built-in wardrobes, together with a modern family bathroom. The principal bedroom is arranged on the second floor, benefiting from fitted wardrobes, eaves storage and access to a further shower room. Outside, the secluded rear garden has been thoughtfully landscaped with attractive planting, seating areas, timber shed and rear access. A garage in nearby Dorset Place provides useful parking or storage.

Tarring Village is one of Worthing's most attractive and historic residential settings, loved for its character, community feel and charming village atmosphere. The property is positioned on the quiet High Street, close to local cafés, convenience stores, restaurants, traditional pubs and everyday amenities.

The area is particularly popular with families, falling within reach of the sought-after Thomas A Becket schools, while nearby bus routes and West Worthing railway station provide excellent transport links across the south coast and towards London. Further shops and facilities can be found at the Thomas A Becket parade, with Worthing town centre approximately 1.5 miles away.

Worthing's seafront, promenade, theatres, restaurants and wider shopping facilities are all easily accessible, adding to the appeal of this lovely location. Combining historic charm, practical convenience and a strong local community, Tarring Village remains one of Worthing's most desirable places to live.
