

1 BISHOP WOODS ALMSHOUSES, LOWER CLAPTON ROAD

£750,000
FREEHOLD

Set within the historic Bishop's Wood Almshouses, this beautifully presented two-bedroom house offers a rare blend of character, privacy and contemporary living.

Arranged over two floors, the property comprises a welcoming reception room with wood flooring, a sleek galley kitchen, a double bedroom and two stylish ground floor bathrooms, including one en suite. Residents also benefit from access to the communal gardens at the entrance to the property, providing a peaceful outdoor setting. Upstairs is a further bedroom, featuring charming pitched ceilings with exposed timber beams, along with a generous additional storage room.

The Almshouses form an exclusive collection of just five dwellings, originally built in 1665 with funds left by Thomas Wood, born in Clapton in 1607 and later Bishop of Lichfield. The development has been carefully restored by the current owner and was the recipient of the Hackney Design Awards 2020 – Heritage & Restoration category.

Ideally located for the independent shops, cafés and restaurants of Lower Clapton Road, with Chatsworth Road Market, Victoria Park and London Fields Lido all nearby. Excellent transport links are available via Hackney Central and Hackney Downs stations.
