PROPERTY SUMMARY

SUBSTANTIAL MIXED-USE DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY – FOUR BEDROOM APARTMENT & COMMERCIAL PREMISES

A rare and versatile opportunity in the heart of Calverton, offering substantial mixed-use potential with extensive rear land and exciting scope for future enhancement (subject to the necessary planning consents).

Formerly operating as the well-known Calverton Fish Bar, the ground floor provides a spacious commercial premises, ideal for continued business use, investment purposes, or potential redevelopment. Above, the property has been thoughtfully reconfigured from two separate two-bedroom apartments into a generous four-bedroom residential apartment, recently redecorated throughout and benefitting from new carpets to the upper floor, creating modern and well-presented living accommodation ready for immediate occupation.

The property presents a wealth of possibilities for incoming purchasers, whether as a live/work opportunity, mixed-use investment, continued commercial premises with substantial residential accommodation above, or for those looking to explore conversion into a large four-six bedroom detached family home or further residential redevelopment, subject to obtaining the relevant planning permissions. Previous plans had also been considered for a rear extension, highlighting the site's impressive future potential, with buyers advised to make their own enquiries.
