1 Bedroom Apartment - Penthouse located in Edgware

Space Residential are delighted to present an exceptionally large one bedroom character apartment in a converted Grade II listed period building, just off of Orange Hill Road.

The property boasts impressive panoramic views over the surrounding area and comprises an entrance hall with floor to ceiling picture windows, lounge with feature fireplace, a guest w.c, a modern high-end bespoke fitted kitchen, guest cloakroom, a spacious double bedroom and period style en-suite bathroom.

Additionally there are communal gardens, an allocated parking space.

The building retains many original features including the oak panelled communal entrance hall, oak staircase and stained glass atrium.

The building originally known as 'Orange Hill House' was built circa 1881 for William Ruddock of Highgate and stood on Deansbrook Lane. The house was rebuilt
