This charming turn-of-the-century (circa early 1900s) two-bedroom semi-detached cottage is beautifully positioned in a prime location within Rochford, offering convenient access to Rochford train station with direct links into Central London, as well as highly regarded local schools, shops, amenities and more.

The property boasts a wealth of character and charm, retaining an abundance of period features that have been thoughtfully blended with modern living to create a truly special family home. The current owner has invested significant time, care and attention into enhancing the property, resulting in a stylish and welcoming interior throughout.

The ground floor accommodation comprises a stylish lounge, a spacious sitting room which flows seamlessly into a generous kitchen dining/area with a range of integrated appliances, creating an excellent space for everyday living and entertaining. A convenient ground floor WC completes the accommodation.

Stairs rise to the first floor where you will find two generous double bedrooms alongside the family bathroom.

Externally, the home continues to impress with a beautifully maintained south-facing rear garden measuring approximately 80ft, benefitting from new fencing and patio installed in 2023 and offering an ideal space for relaxing or entertaining. To the front, a newly recently installed driveway (2023) provides off-street parking for two vehicles.

Further improvements include UPVC sash double-glazed windows, bespoke window shutters, and integrated blinds to the patio doors, all of which add to the quality and finish of this delightful home.

In addition, the current owner has secured planning permission for a two-storey extension with a brick-built garage, presenting an exciting opportunity for future expansion.

This exceptional cottage combines period charm with modern comfort in a highly desirable location, making it a fantastic opportunity for a range of buyers.
