NORTH STREET

- Characterful grade II listed cottage
- Boasting an abundance of charming features
- Two sizeable double bedrooms
- Ample storage throughout
- Low maintenance courtyard garden
- Spacious lounge with wood burning stove
- Large games room/basement with power
- External study/workshop
- Ultra convenient location on the doorstep of shops and bus links
- Within easy reach of Rochford Train Station for direct access into Central London

Situated within Rochford's historic town centre, this beautifully characterful Grade II listed cottage offers an abundance of charm, period features and surprisingly versatile living space, all within easy reach of shops, schools and excellent transport links into Central London.

The accommodation begins with a large and inviting lounge, rich in character and centred around a charming wood-burning stove, creating a warm and cosy focal point. The ground floor also features a fitted kitchen and a conveniently placed shower room, ideal for modern living while remaining sympathetic to the age of the property.

Upstairs, the cottage offers two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both benefiting from excellent built-in storage, a rare and valuable feature in a period home.

A real highlight of the property is the tanked basement, which benefits from power and offers a multitude of potential uses. Whether envisaged as a games room, home office, hobby space or additional storage, this flexible area adds valuable versatility to the home (buyers should make their own enquiries regarding usage).

Externally, the property enjoys a private rear courtyard garden, perfect for low-maintenance outdoor living, along with an external workshop/shed, ideal for storage or creative use.

Offered freehold and with no onward chain, this delightful cottage represents a rare opportunity to acquire a character home in one of Rochford's most desirable and convenient locations.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the charm, setting and flexibility this home has to offer.
