A well-presented one-bedroom upper flat in the ever-popular Forest Hall area, ideal for anyone looking for a quieter residential setting with plenty nearby.

Forest Hall is a highly desirable spot, with a good mix of everyday convenience and places to enjoy on your doorstep. The area is well liked for its green spaces, local walks and easy access to nearby parks, including Springfield Park and the wider surrounding open spaces. It's a good location for anyone who enjoys being close to nature without feeling cut off.

There is plenty to do locally, with cafés, restaurants, takeaways and independent spots nearby. Sands of Tyne is a popular local coffee shop and bar, while the wider Forest Hall and Benton area offers well-rated food options including Turkish, Italian and casual dining. The Riddle Room is also nearby for something a bit different, and the coast, North Shields Fish Quay and Newcastle city centre are all within easy reach.
