Kitchen

A modern kitchen with a contemporary island that doubles as a breakfast bar, finished with a dark countertop contrasting with light cabinetry. One wall boasts an exposed brick finish, adding character alongside a playful neon sign that reads 'but first coffee.' The kitchen is bright and airy, with light wood flooring and integrated appliances, including an oven and hob. A unique decorative backsplash featuring a bear adds a distinctive touch to the space.

Bedroom

This bedroom offers a peaceful retreat with a double bed positioned against a teal feature wall. The space is softly lit by wall-mounted pendant lights, and a window dressed with dark curtains provides ample natural light. The room includes a small workspace with a desk and a chair, creating a functional area for study or work. The carpeted floor adds to the room's cosy and welcoming feel.

Ensuite

A compact en-suite shower room with a corner shower enclosure featuring clear glass doors and a grey tiled interior. The white vanity unit houses a small sink, and a round mirror hangs above. The space is clean, modern, and practical, designed for convenience and easy maintenance.

Rear Garden

A well-maintained rear garden with a neatly trimmed lawn bordered by wooden panel fencing. The garden is enclosed for privacy and benefits from direct access to the house through large bi-fold doors that open from the kitchen, providing a seamless flow between indoor and outdoor living. The brick exterior of the property contrasts nicely with the green space, offering a peaceful outdoor area for relaxation or entertaining.

Front Exterior

The exterior of this semi-detached house features a pebble driveway providing space for several vehicles.

6 Ensuite rooms available from £640pcm.
