431 Horlicks Quarter Stoke Gardens

The iconic Horlicks Factory is the historic centrepiece of Horlicks Quarter and a landmark of Slough's industrial heritage. Built in 1908, the original factory produced the world-famous Horlicks malted milk drink for more than a century. Its distinctive red-brick architecture, crenellated Clock Tower, iconic rooftop lettering and 47-metre chimney have been carefully restored as part of the regeneration of the site. Today, the former factory has been transformed into a unique residential destination, retaining its historic character while introducing beautifully designed apartments, a dramatic central atrium and exclusive residents' amenities.

Horlicks Quarter is a landmark development in the heart of Slough, combining contemporary homes with the restoration of the iconic Horlicks Factory, Clock Tower and 47-metre chimney.

Residents benefit from landscaped gardens, water features and a fantastic range of amenities including concierge, gym, cinema room, games room, co-working hub and rooftop garden.

Ideally located just moments from Slough station, with fast Elizabeth Line and mainline connections to London Paddington, Windsor and beyond, Horlicks Quarter offers an exceptional blend of heritage, modern living and connectivity.
