LOCATION

Watermead – situated on the northern outskirts of the town, continues to be as popular today as it was when the very first homes were released in the late 1980's. With two magnificent lakes, a quaint village centre and open countryside on the doorstep a more picturesque setting would be hard to imagine. The location offers convenient access by road towards the M25 and M40 as well as being a short drive to Aylesbury Parkway Train Station offering mainline services to London Marylebone.

ACCOMMODATION

Upon entering, the property opens into a welcoming living room, which features a charming bay window with custom-fitted shutter blinds, a feature electric fireplace creating a pleasant focal point, useful under-stairs storage cupboard and stairs rising to the first floor.

The kitchen/diner is comprises an inset gas hob, electric oven and cooker hood, together with an integrated fridge. There is space and plumbing for a washing machine, while the dining area provides room for a dining table and chairs. New boiler installed in 2025. The kitchen leads through to a bright and versatile sunroom, which benefits from doors opening directly onto the rear garden.

To the first floor, there are three bedrooms, along with loft access providing additional storage potential. The main bedroom benefits from its own en-suite bathroom, while the remaining bedrooms are served by a separate family bathroom.

Externally, the property enjoys an enclosed rear garden comprising a paved patio area, lawn and built-in planters. Gated rear access provides additional convenience, while a courtesy door gives direct access into the garage.

The garage is fitted with an up-and-over door and benefits from both lighting and power. A driveway positioned directly in front of the garage provides off-road parking. There is also an EV charging point.

Overall, this is a superb family home, presented in great order throughout and occupying a popular position on the highly sought after Watermead development. The property offers versatile living accommodation, attractive outdoor space, garage and parking, making it an excellent choice for a wide range of buyers.
