ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation begins with an entrance hall, with stairs rising to the first floor. The downstairs hallway and reception rooms feature solid oak flooring, adding warmth and character throughout the ground floor.

To the front of the property is a bright and welcoming living room, centred around a characterful Stovax Studio gas fireplace. The front rooms also benefit from handmade double-glazed wooden sash windows, carefully chosen to preserve the home's period character.

To the rear, the separate dining room provides an excellent space for everyday dining or entertaining, with direct access out to the garden.

The modern fitted kitchen is well equipped and finished to a high standard, featuring an induction hob, cooker hood, integrated double oven and grill, integrated microwave, steel sink with pull-out spray tap, quartz worktops and underfloor heating. There is also space and plumbing for a washing machine, along with room for a fridge freezer.

Upstairs, the first floor offers two generous double bedrooms, with the stairs and bedrooms benefiting from newly fitted wool carpets. The accommodation extends over the side alley, meaning the bedrooms are larger than typically found on the street.

The newly fitted family bathroom is finished with a shower cubicle, rainfall shower head, extra-wide double-ended bath with Lefroy Brooks deck-mounted bath shower mixer, wash hand basin and WC. The landing provides access via a built-in retractable ladder to a spacious stand-up loft, offering excellent storage and potential for conversion into a large loft room, subject to the necessary permissions and regulations.

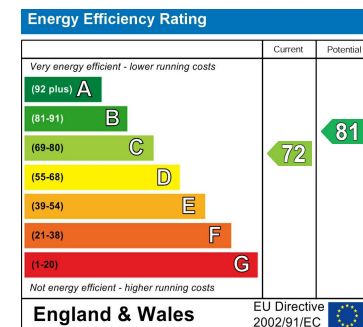

Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed rear garden, with a patio area ideal for outdoor dining and a lawned section. Immediately beyond the kitchen is an external storage area, useful for garden equipment, bikes or household storage. There is also the advantage of gated side access.

Overall, this is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a charming, characterful home in a highly convenient location, ready to move straight into.
