One of the largest corner 1-bedroom apartments within the beautifully converted Elisabeth Mill, this impressive home forms part of the sought-after Elisabeth Gardens development in the popular Reddish area. Full of character, the apartment features attractive exposed brickwork and enjoys far-reaching views, combining the building's industrial heritage with modern living.

The well-proportioned accommodation comprises a generous open-plan living, dining and kitchen area with integrated appliances, a spacious double bedroom, a contemporary fitted bathroom, and the added benefit of a video entry intercom system.

Elisabeth Gardens offers a unique blend of period character and contemporary design, set within the heart of Reddish's Houldsworth Conservation Area. Located just over five miles from Manchester city centre, it provides an ideal setting for commuters and professionals looking to enjoy a quieter lifestyle without compromising on connectivity.

A range of local amenities are within easy reach, including Houldsworth Golf Club just a short walk away, local shops within 5 minutes, and Reddish South railway station approximately ten minutes away, providing convenient links into Manchester city centre. The area is also well served by excellent public transport routes and nearby road networks.
