A well presented semi-detached family home situated in a peaceful cul-de-sac upon the Southern outskirts of Shirley, Solihull.

Benefiting from large double-glazed windows providing plenty of natural light, the accommodation briefly comprises an enclosed porch, an entrance hall, a re-fitted guests WC, a cosy living room with a wood burning stove, a study area and a modern dining kitchen with integrated appliances; off the first floor landing there is a master bedroom having en-suite wash facilities, two further bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom with a separate shower cubicle.

Outside, there is a wide driveway at the front affording off-road parking for two vehicles, a partitioned integral garage offering plenty of storage space and an attractive enclosed garden at the rear.

The property is located less than a mile from Shirley Railway Station and approximately two miles from Shirley High Street, on the A34 Stratford Road, which also provides direct access to Birmingham City Centre and the Midlands motorway network.
