WJ Meade are delighted to present this impressive three storey Victorian terraced house within the Ropery Street Conversation Area, just moments from Mile End underground station as well as the public green spaces of Tower Hamlets Cemetery Park Nature Reserve and Mile End Park which runs alongside the Regents canal. The accommodation is spread across 1262sq ft, plus a 91sq ft storage basement, with a flexible setup that allows for four double bedrooms over the top two floors and a ground floor dedicated to social space as two separate reception rooms with the dining space opening to the stylish fitted kitchen and bi-folding doors out to the courtyard garden. A beautiful and well-maintained family home which perfectly blends modern convenience and style with the original character features of Victorian architecture.
