WJ Meade are delighted to present this first-floor apartment within a Victorian terraced house, part of the prestigious Tredegar Square Conservation Area. The flexible configuration allows for two bedrooms, reception room, fitted kitchen with wooden countertops, contemporary bathroom suite and own section of rear garden. Located on a tree-lined no-through road, within a coveted residential area betwixt the transport hub of Mile End station and the wonderful open green spaces of Victoria Park. Close at hand you will find the popular gastropubs The Morgan Arms, The Coborn and Lord Tredegar, as well as independent coffee shops, convenience stores and the latest introduction being the bakery at 9 Morgan Street. This is an ideal first purchase, with future potential to enable a longer term home in a charming character property.
