LOCATION

Haddenham is a beautiful Buckinghamshire village located just 3 miles from the Oxfordshire town of Thame and seven miles from Aylesbury. Several times winners of 'Village of the Year' in their region, Haddenham is the largest of the four Wychert villages in Bucks. Wychert is the name given to the mud and wattle walls that are a common sight in the village. Haddenham is also famous for its ponds and was the original breeding ground for the Aylesbury duck. There are a comprehensive range of amenities in the village including a post office, two public houses, a parade of shops and a popular garden centre and farm shop. A village health centre and adjoining pharmacy has recently opened in the village. For schooling, three reputable primary schools are located in the village with a regular bus service provided for all three Aylesbury grammar schools. The private sector is also catered for with Ashfold School in nearby Dorton. For the commuter, a railway station is positioned in the village and a short walk from the property, providing regular direct line services to London, Marylebone (from 37 mins) or Birmingham. For motorists, the M40 (junction 6) is about nine miles away. A regular bus service through the village goes to Aylesbury, Thame and Oxford for larger department stores or further amenities.
