111 Ashfield Street, London E1 2HA

This substantial four-storey property offers a rare combination of space, versatility and an excellent location in the heart of Whitechapel.

The building is arranged to include a self-contained one-bedroom flat on the ground floor, providing ideal accommodation for extended family, guests, or potential rental income.

The three upper floors comprise six well-proportioned bedrooms, two bathrooms and a large, fully equipped kitchen designed to accommodate multiple occupants comfortably. The layout provides generous living space throughout and is well suited for larger households, professional sharers or investors looking for a strong rental proposition.

The property is positioned just a stone's throw from the greenery and open spaces of Ford Square and Sidney Square, creating a pleasant residential feel while still enjoying all the conveniences of urban living. Whitechapel Station, served by the Elizabeth Line as well as the Overground, District and Hammersmith & City lines, is only a short walk away. A wide range of bus routes also operate nearby, offering quick and direct connections into Central London and surrounding areas.

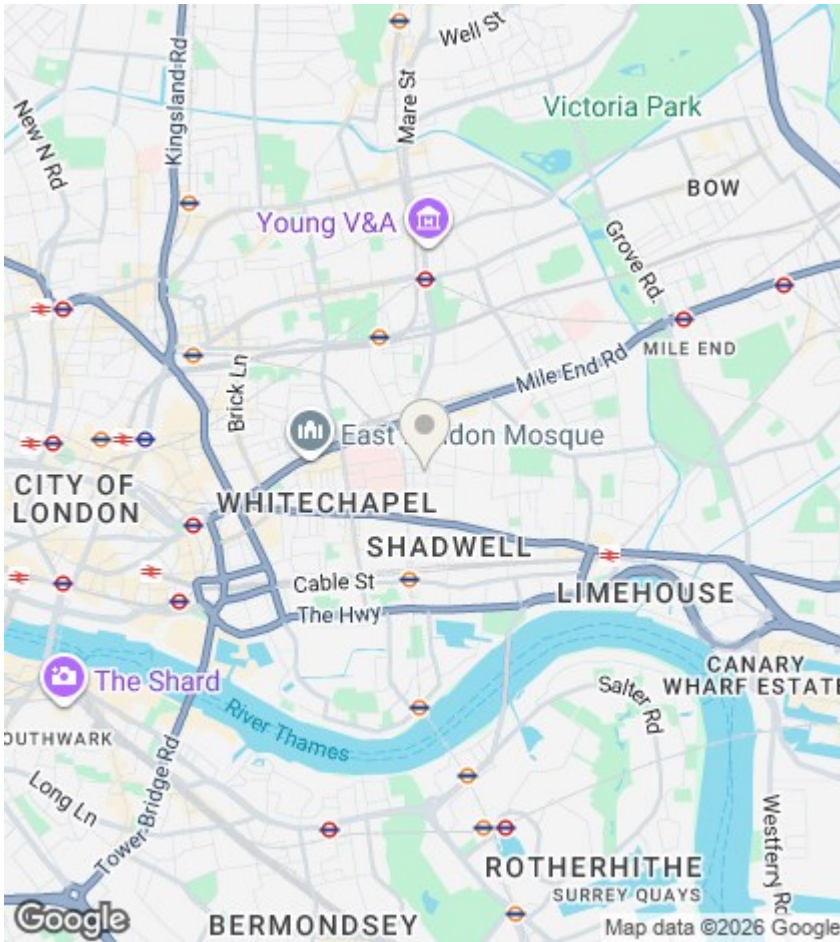

With its excellent transport links, sought-after location and flexible internal accommodation, 111 Ashfield Street represents an appealing opportunity in one of East London's most vibrant and rapidly developing neighbourhoods.
