4 Jeffreys Way, Uckfield TN22 1JF

A very well presented example of these ever popular two-bedroom neo-Georgian terraced houses on the well-regarded Manor Park development within walking distance of local amenities, a range of schooling and within walking distance of the High Street.

Council Tax Band: C

Upon entering the property is a small entrance hall that opens into the beautiful lounge with bay window to front and built in cupboards to either side of the chimney breast with further storage located under the stairs. This then leads through to a modern recently re-fitted kitchen/diner with fitted induction hob, oven and extractor fan, washing machine and space for fridge freezer. Patio doors open to the rear garden.

The first floor is benefits from two double bedrooms, (a walk -in wardrobe to main bedroom) and family bathroom consisting of bath, shower, low level WC and wash basin. Views from the rear windows are a true delight with distant views across nearby countryside.

The rear garden enjoys a slabbed patio and pathway to the rear gate with an expanse of lawn to side. The rear gate opens to a pathway that leads to a single garage en-bloc. Viewing advised.
