If you're looking for a holiday home that stands out from the rest, the Willerby Waverley offers the ultimate in style and sophistication. With an impressive 14ft width and a carefully considered layout, this two-bedroom model delivers an exceptional sense of space, comfort and luxury.

One of the first things you'll notice is the striking full-length windows, flooding the open-plan living area with natural light and offering incredible views of the surrounding parkland. Whether you're relaxing with a book or entertaining guests, this bright and airy space is the perfect retreat after a day exploring the Yorkshire Dales.

At the heart of the Waverley is its standout feature: the kitchen. Cleverly designed to maximise space and sociability, it includes everything you need to cook up a storm, all while staying connected with family or friends. The sleek design and quality finish make it a central hub for both everyday use and special occasions.

This is more than just a static caravan – the Waverley combines contemporary design with practical features, making it a true home-from-home and a real head-turner within the park. Ready to view? Get in touch with us today to arrange a tour of this exceptional holiday home at Akebar Park.
