£585,000

201 Empress Works 11 Stanton Walk, London E2 9FR

Located along the banks of the Regent's Canal between Broadway Market and Victoria Park, this modern, five-year-old one-bedroom apartment seamlessly blends contemporary living with subtle industrial style. The westerly-facing property features high ceilings with exposed concrete accents and striking, large Crittall-style windows that flood the open-plan living space with natural light. The main living area opens directly onto a well sized private balcony, perfect for evening sun and partial canal-side views. Further development amenities include a concierge service, a well stocked gym, bike storage and a shared communal roof terrace. Situated ideally for easy commutes to The City and across London, the flat is just a short walk from Cambridge Heath Overground and Bethnal Green Underground stations. Offered to the market chain-free.
