A beautifully appointed one-bedroom, top-floor apartment in The Printworks - a highly desirable warehouse-style development on New Kings Road in the heart of Parsons Green, London SW6.

Positioned on the top floor and laid out across the full width of the building, this exceptional apartment benefits from excellent natural light and striking internal volume, characteristic of former industrial conversions. The living space has been designed with a contemporary open-plan layout, creating a fluid connection between kitchen, dining, and reception areas - ideal for modern urban living and entertaining.

The well-proportioned double bedroom provides a comfortable and private retreat, while large windows frame views across the surrounding streetscape. The apartment is finished to a high standard throughout, with quality fixtures and fittings that enhance both functionality and style.
