Located on Hollingdean Terrace in Brighton, this beautifully refurbished three-bedroom terraced home offers stylish, turn-key living in a fantastic city location. Renovated throughout to an excellent standard, the property blends modern finishes with character features, creating a home that feels bright, welcoming and ready to move straight into.

The ground floor offers both versatility and generous living space. At the front of the home, a separate reception room provides a cosy snug, lounge or additional dining area – ideal for quiet evenings, reading, or entertaining guests. A feature fireplace adds charm and character, while the neutral colour palette used throughout the home enhances the sense of light and space.

To the rear, the property opens into a spacious open-plan kitchen, living and dining area designed with modern lifestyles in mind. This naturally bright space forms the heart of the home, offering plenty of room for cooking, relaxing and socialising. The kitchen has been thoughtfully designed and sits comfortably alongside the living and dining areas, creating a seamless flow that works perfectly for everyday living and hosting friends or family.

Upstairs, the sense of space continues with three well-proportioned bedrooms, each offering comfortable accommodation with good natural light and a continuation of the home's calm, neutral styling. Two bathrooms serve the upper floor, providing practicality and flexibility for families, guests or those working from home. Character features including fireplaces remain in place, complementing the quality refurbishment and adding warmth and personality. The home has been finished with a consistent and tasteful design throughout, with clean lines, neutral tones and carefully considered details that allow the property to feel both modern and timeless.
