Discover a charming one-bedroom ground-floor flat in a quiet, residential setting just off Campbell Gordon Way. The property benefits from its own private garden and enjoys direct views of, and is just across from, Gladstone Park, offering a leafy retreat right on your doorstep. With its well kept communal gardens, this location combines tranquillity with the convenience of London living.

Situated in NW2, the flat is well placed for excellent transport links: Dollis Hill Underground Station (Jubilee Line) is nearby, providing fast connections to central London, and there are multiple bus routes in easy walking distance.

Local amenities are within reach: shops, cafés, and eateries are available around Cricklewood Broadway for daily needs and casual socialising.
