4 Bedroom House - Detached located in Prescot

An impressive four bedroom detached property built in 1916 and retaining many of its original features. Situated in a sought after location and close to Prescot town centre, reputable local schools, transport links and with motorway access nearby. The spacious accommodation briefly comprises of entrance vestibule with original stained glass door to the entrance hall, sitting room, lounge with feature fireplace, conservatory, dining room, further reception room and sauna/shower room. On the first floor are four double bedrooms with an en suite bathroom with spa bath to the main bedroom and a modern family shower room. The rear garden is extensive with patio, lawn, mature trees, electric points and water supply. The front has a paved garden with driveway for off road parking and double garage. We recommend an early viewing of this substantial family home. EPC GRADE: D
