

Manor Road, Ealing

A four double bedroom, Edwardian, end of terrace family home, set over three exemplary detailed floors of lofty proportions that has been extensively developed and extended in recent years.

The home, just moments from West Ealing Station, an appointed 'Elizabeth' line station, provides a beautiful template for family life and entertaining.

The home measures at an impressive 1432 sq ft, providing well-designed accommodation over three floors of immaculately refurbished space.

The ground floor was extended as part of a major works program in 2019, and the beautifully presented and sizeable open plan kitchen, provides a depth of nearly 20ft, with plentiful dining space and features striking black aluminum steel patio doors in 'Crittall' style.

The ground floor opens up to a level-access rear garden providing a striking visual backdrop to the garden whose synthetic lawn is ideal for children's sporting and play activities.

- Beautiful Edwardian end of terrace house
- Four double bedrooms
- Excellent condition throughout
- Sought-after location
- Close to transport links
- Great schools nearby
