COUNTRY

Rye Harbour has a rich maritime history and the buildings reflect the village's association with the sea, including the Watch House, the Lifeboat Station and the Martello Tower which was built on the beachline of the time and formed part of the coastline defences during the Napoleonic Wars. A large part of the nearby Nature Reserve, renowned for its fauna and flora and as a haven for shore birds, is a "Site of Special Scientific Interest" (SSSI) and across it are extensive walks with access to the tranquil beach. Westward, extensive shingle, grazing land and marsh provide open country walking to Winchelsea and Winchelsea Beach. Camber Sands is about 7 miles by road. Local shopping facilities include a village stores, café, public house and sailing club. There are yacht moorings, a small fishing fleet and some commercial shipping. Two miles inland is the Ancient Town and Cinque Port of Rye with train services from Rye to Eastbourne and to Ashford, from where there are high speed connections for London St. Pancras (37minutes).
