COUNTRY

Situated within the Conservation Area of the Ancient Town of Winchelsea, one of the few examples of a bastide town in England based on the grid-iron street plan with wide, regular streets arranged around a giant square and the church of St. Thomas the Martyr. Local facilities include a shop, together with a primary school and public house. Winchelsea has a railway station nearby (.75 mile) from where there are train services to Eastbourne and to Ashford with high speed connections to London St Pancras (journey time 37 minutes). For more comprehensive facilities there is the Cinque Port of Rye within 3 miles which has a good range of independent shops, restaurants and Kino cinema.

Front steps up to a small garden with front door into a charming living room featuring a wood-burning stove set within a classic fireplace, complemented by built-in shelves to one side. The room has exposed pine floorboards and a large window to the front with views. Stairs to the first floor with a cupboard under divide the two reception rooms.

The dining room has a traditional fireplace and window to the rear overlooking the garden.

A compact kitchen has modern cabinetry in a dark finish and fitted with integrated appliances including an oven, microwave and gas hob. Belfast sink and terracotta tiled flooring, space for a fridge freezer. A door leads to the bathroom and there is a window to the side and door out to the garden.

The bathroom comprises a panelled bath, wash hand basin and w.c.

Bedroom I has exposed pine floorboards, window to the front with far reaching views over farmland towards Rye, cast iron fireplace with pine surround and built in shelving.

The second bedroom also has exposed pine floorboards and sash window overlooking the rear garden.

Outside:

The rear garden extends to approx 47' and features steps up to a brick patio. The garden has a variety of mature plants and trees creating a secluded space. Note: There is a pedestrian right of way to the rear of the terrace.
