Seaford is a popular coastal town situated between Brighton to the west and Eastbourne to the east, near Seaford Head and approximately midway between the mouths of the River Ouse and the Cuckmere. The A259 provides convenient road links in both directions, making it ideal for commuters.

The town is served by a mainline railway station and is particularly well regarded across the South East for its seafront, which remains largely uncommercialised, offering a more traditional seaside setting. Council Tax Band C - EPC Rating D
