UNDER OFFER

Sitting directly on the seafront in the picturesque village of Whiting Bay on the Isle of Arran, Ardtalla is a remarkable traditional villa that exudes charm and character. Constructed in 1922, this substantial property boasts a prominent position, offering breathtaking, uninterrupted views of the Firth of Clyde and the stunning landscape beyond.

As you enter Ardtalla, you are welcomed by a spacious entrance vestibule leading into a large hallway. The ground floor features two inviting reception rooms that face the front, perfect for entertaining or enjoying the serene vistas. The property includes a small preparation kitchen and a breakfasting room equipped with a gas cooking range, ideal for culinary enthusiasts. A utility room houses the boiler, while a convenient hall at the rear leads to a toilet with a wash hand basin and a single bedroom, snug or office providing flexibility for various living arrangements.

Venturing to the upper floor, you will find four well-proportioned bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a small room on the mezzanine level, which has historical significance as a former toilet. The loft area spans the entire house, presenting potential for further development or storage.

Set within a generous plot, Ardtalla is surrounded by mature gardens that enhance its appeal. The south side of the gardens were once lovingly cultivated for vegetable growing, these patches could be re introduced adding a touch of sustainability to this charming home. Additionally, off-road parking is available for three cars on the driveway, ensuring convenience for residents and guests alike.

Ardtalla is not just a house; it is a unique opportunity to own a piece of history in a stunning location, perfect for those seeking a tranquil lifestyle amidst the natural beauty of the Isle of Arran.
