Cottage - Semi Detached
located in Kilmory

1 Bourtreebank is a beautifully presented cottage in walk in condition and the perfect bolt hole to escape to, located near to the village of Lagg, in a tranquil peaceful rural setting taking in the impressive sea views across the south coast of Arran and beyond.

This bespoke property has been refurbished and designed to create a cosy one bedroom cottage with opening plan living area and shower room on the ground floor with a spacious double bedroom on the first floor, packed with an abundance storage space, whilst flooded with natural light.

The majority of the fixtures, fittings and furniture are including within the sale.

Bourtreebank is a pleasant small clachlan about ½ mile off the A841 and is accessed by a narrow unfinished track serving adjacent farms and other houses. It is approximately 1 mile from the village of Lagg with it's famous hotel and in the neighbouring village of Kilmory is the primary school, the much utilised community village hall with honesty shop and the Lagg distillery nearby.

Approximately 5 miles north is the village of Blackwaterfoot with its selection of excellent local shops and it is approximately 18 miles to Brodick, the main ferry terminal for the island. 4 miles south of Brodick is Lamlash with the island's secondary school to which pupils are conveyed daily by bus.

Bourtreebank is a friendly farming community set amidst the rolling hills of south Arran with its many attractive walks and beautiful beaches and abundant opportunities for wildlife watching.
