DIRECTIONS

Please note that vehicle access is only suitable by 4x4 or all wheel drive high vehicles. From Brodick Pier turn left and proceed south through Lamlash and Whiting Bay. On leaving the village, proceed for approximately a kilometre. Take the track on the left handside, passing through Seaview farm. Continue down the track, where you will come to the gate and a small turning/ parking area marked Shore Cottage at the top of the cliff. Walking access is available with off road public parking from approximately 200meters on from the track, on the left handside of the main road, opposite the properties - opposite Ayrview Cottage and Largybeg House. There is a green footpath sign, follow the track and turn right this will lead to the gate and footpath to Shore Cottage for approximately 350m. Take the pathway steps down to the shore and cottage. There are seventy two steps down to the property, people with mobility issues may find it difficult.
