In Detail

Guide price £275,000 - £300,000
A beautifully refurbished one bedroom top floor period conversion in the heart of Crystal Palace.

Flooded with natural light, this warm and welcoming home has been finished to an excellent standard with a contemporary style. The spacious reception room extends to over 15ft, offering ample space for both living and dining, complemented by attractive elevated views.

A sleek modern kitchen features integrated appliances, high-gloss handle-less cabinetry, and a tiled floor — ideal for those who love to cook. The stylish bathroom is fitted with crisp white sanitary ware, polished stainless-steel fittings, and a skylight that fills the space with daylight. Quietly positioned at the rear, the double bedroom enjoys a sunny south-easterly aspect with lush green views stretching toward Kent.

Perfectly situated on Church Road, you'll find an eclectic mix of bars, restaurants, cafés, and independent boutiques right on the doorstep — along with the beautiful Crystal Palace Park and a local cinema. Transport connections are easily nearby, with both Crystal Palace and Gipsy Hill stations offering swift access to Central and East London.
