In Detail

This light and bright property is set within a beautifully maintained Victorian building dating to the late 1800's, with intricate period details such as granite pillars and huge gothic style stained glass windows which extend across the impressive entrance hall and main staircase.

The accommodation has been finished to a high standard and features a 21ft reception room with a sunny south-westerly aspect, wood flooring, bespoke fitted shelving and cast iron radiators. This is socially open-plan to the kitchen with a sit-up breakfast bar and ample storage. Both of the bedrooms are of a double proportion, whilst the bathroom features double vanity sinks and a separate walk-in shower.

Externally there is a lush green communal garden which backs directly onto Crystal Palace Park.

This property is positioned on the favoured part of the road enabling ease of access to both Penge East and West rail links, the High Street, and central Crystal Palace. The park provides 200 acres of green space and holds weekly food markets as well as various events throughout the year.
