In Detail

An elegantly presented two bedroom hall floor period conversion forming part of a prestigious leafy road in Crystal Palace.

This characterful property is accessed via a private entrance and boasts a generously proportioned larger bedroom with high ceilings and lots of natural light drawn from sizeable windows. The bathroom has been smartly upgraded, whilst the kitchen has been thoughtfully designed to maximise work and storage space. The reception room is the heart of the home with ample relaxation and dining areas, complimented by high ceilings and replacement windows which frame the view of the garden. The second bedroom can comfortably fit a single bed or be used as a home office.

The outside space is a private colourful oasis surrounded by mature greenery and offering a calm place to while away time. Much time and effort has been spent cultivating and improving to create the ideal spot to enjoy warmer days and evenings.

Belvedere road enables ease of access to Crystal Palace station (for central and East London) and 200 acres of historic parkland. Also, the buzzing central Triangle with a melange of smart eateries and independent shopping options.
