In Detail

An exceptional two double bedroom garden flat situated at the crest of Belvedere Road, just moments from the vibrant Crystal Palace Triangle and within easy reach of both Gipsy Hill and Crystal Palace stations.

Accessed via its own private entrance and set apart from the main building, this unique home offers a rare sense of privacy and character. More reminiscent of a charming coach house than a typical period conversion, the property is rich with original features and beautifully balanced by tasteful modern touches. High ceilings, grand sash windows with wooden shutters, and a working fireplace create an inviting and sophisticated atmosphere in the reception room, flooding the space with natural light throughout the day.

Both bedrooms are generous doubles, offering excellent proportions and flexibility for guests, home working, or additional storage. The kitchen and bathroom have been stylishly updated and finished with vibrant, thoughtfully chosen tiling. The bathroom, in particular, impresses with a luxurious roll-top bath and a separate walk-in shower—perfect for unwinding after a long day.

Further highlights include solid wood flooring, ample built-in storage, and a superb 36ft private garden complete with a patio area ideal for entertaining, dining, or enjoying sunny afternoons

Quite unlike anything else in the surrounding area, this beautifully presented home offers charm, individuality, and comfort in an unbeatable location—perfect for buyers seeking a standout property with real personality.

Belvedere Road is one of the most sought after roads in Crystal Palace, within the Crystal Palace conservation area and within easy reach of the station, the bustling Triangle at the centre of town, as well as 200 acres of parkland.

No onward chain.
